

Day 3

Today we went to Leipzig by train and bus. At first we got a guided city tour from a nice guy named Johannes. We saw the university, the old and new townhall and a lot more. Also we learned much about the history of the church of Nicolai.

Then we had some free time, where some of us went for lunch. Sadly, we couldn't go shopping because in Leipzig was the "Day of Prayer and Repentance", a vacation day.

In the evening we went together for dinner in Eisenberg. In the restaurant we had asian food.
